02(b)	HONORARY COLONEL PROCESS AND
02(c)	COLONEL COMMANDANT & COLONEL OF THE REGIMENT NOMINEES 1. Branch Advisor – Senate Endorsement: Nominations should go through the C&E Senate. Case-in-Point: MGen Neasmith (Retired) is set to be the next CoTR CFJSR and his nomination awaits Senate endorsement. L1s hold ultimate authority and that Branch endorsement is sought for tracking Branch-related affairs. 2. Branch Leader – Honorary Appointments: Submissions do not NEED to go through the Senate, but it is a viable mechanism to provide a ‘Sober Second Thought’ to the nominee and provide visibility to the senior leadership within the C&E Branch. The BL agrees that waiting for the Senate to gather and discuss an application may create friction due to timelines and that further clarity is required. 3. Strategic A6 – Confirmation WRT Senate: a. that the Senate is providing a ‘Sanity Check’ for nominations; b. what happens if a candidate is not endorsed? Is this purely for visibility / SA; and c. timings for nominations will be impaired due to conflicting Senate timings.	1. Colonel Roy to re-define arcs-of-fire / ToS for HCol nomination process with the Senate. 2. Colonel Roy and BGen O’Keefe to review system and refine so that the Senate is involved without imposing unrealistic time delays and a clear understanding of the Senate’s role and level of influence. 3. See items 1 and 2.

	4. DComd CFIOG – Senate Role WRT Honoraries: What is the Senate approving that is not already clearly existing is the environmental selection process? Do we need to update / revise the Senate ToS to clearly explicate their role in this process? 5. Branch Advisor – Col Cmdt Roster: List – created by BGen O’Keefe – must be updated and reviewed constantly. Current list of potential nominees needs to be reviewed and reduced to a select few nominations.	4. See items 1 and 2. 5. MGen Chagnon and BGen O’Keefe to reduce current roster of potential Col Cmdt nominees down to a max of 2-4 names. BGen O’Keefe to work with Major Christie to ensure roster of honouraries remains current and published on CMCEN, etc.
02(d)	STANDING ORDERS 1. Branch Leader – First Draft Due Date: Due 01 April 2020.	1. Major Christie to collect, review, and combine all eight (8) chapters into one document NLT 01 Apr 2020. Future revisions and updates likely up to C&E Week.
